- Showcase the availability of healthy options in our county
- Provide contact information about various agencies in the community
- Give information about youth and adult activities that are available throughout the year
- Promote healthy and active lifestyles amongst youth and adults in our community
- Offer resources to help alleviate financial burdens for back-to-school shopping

Vendors will offer different activities that promote wellness. There will be games, music, giveaways, inflatables, and more. Each attendee will receive a goodie bag to collect promotional materials.
